

Revival Ridge has had the honor of performing at the Ryman Auditorium in Nashville, Tennessee, Renfro Valley, Kentucky and has traveled extensively across Kentucky, Tennessee, Ohio, and Indiana performing at festivals, concert halls, churches and other venues. Everyone is a great musician to begin with, but they are also loyal servants of the Most High God. The anointing that is in the music can be felt by everyone who hears it.

Revival Ridge is a bluegrass gospel group based out of Bellevue, Kentucky. This is a group of seasoned professionals, combined with youth and energy. Group Leader Paul Estep is an accomplished lead and tenor singer as well as a recognized music instructor, songwriter, minister and guitar player. When you combine that with the young talent of Jonathan Estep on mandolin and singing lead, tenor or baritone, Bill Morgan on banjo and singing lead and baritone, all backed by Ron Cornett singing bass and holding it all together on the upright bass, you have Revival Ridge. They are available to play Festivals, Churches, Weddings, Family Events and Restaurants; however, they do not play in bars or taverns.

"Revival Ridge headed up by Paul Estep along with son Jonathan, Billy Morgan, and Ron Cornett provides you with great Bluegrass Gospel entertainment along with the Gospel Message. Tight harmonies and solid traditional picking does them proud. Along with inspiring originals, the band has worked up their arrangements - to be fresh and exciting. They are going to be around for a long time on the Bluegrass Circuit!"
